REBEL INVASION OF MARYLAND Rebels Reported to be Across the Potomac Again!

BALTIMORE, Aug. 24.—There is a report, via the Northern Central railroad, that the rebels have crossed the Potomac. But the report needs confirmation. There is in Baltimore nothing direct this morning from the Upper Potomac.

FROM GRANT'S ARMY. The Rebels Retire from the Weldon Railroad-Their Attempt to Regain Possession Abandoned-Surmises as to Rebel Movements-Deserters from South Carolina Regiments.

[Correspondence of the Associated Press.] HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, August 23 .- The enemy early yesterday morning disappeared from the front of the 5th and 9th corps, on the Weldon Railroad, and the belief is that the attempt to regain possession of this important line of communication has been abandoned, and that the enemy are fortifying their right flank to resist an attack in this direction from our forces. They may, however, be preparing to make a dash on our line in some other direction.

Occasional firing has been going on along the centre, and was quite lively during the night. This morning occasional shots are heard. The roads continue wet, making travel very difficult.

About thirty repels were brought in during the night, principally South Carolinians, most of whom claim to be deserters. This story, however, is not believed, as the soldiers from that State have furnished fewer deserters to our side than any other in the Confederacy. They are strong, hearty looking men, and seem to think the end of the struggle is at hand, and they believe Petersburg to be almost within our grasp, and will be in our possession at an early day.

THE SITUATION. As close readers for the past three or four days will have perceived, the good cause of the Union is rapidly closing and tightening its grasp upon the two strongholds of the rebellien-Richmond and Atlanta. The events of the past ten days in the vicinity of Richmond and Petersburg, have demonstrated the inability of the rebels to check the successive movements of Grant in that quarter. He now holds a position about Dutch Run Gap and Deep Bottom, from which he threatens at any moment to make a successful dash at Richmond, and in front of which-to prevent him from so doing-they must keep a considerable portion of Lee's army; a portion so large as that the balance have not proved large enough to dislodge our 5th corps from the command of the Weldon railroad, south of Petersburg, though if not speedily dislodged their command of that work must necessitate, sooner or later, the abandonment of Virginia by the rebels. Sheridan and his force are playing an important part in this spirited campaign. We feel very sure that his movements, one and allare not the result of a belief in his inability to hold his own against Early (as heavily reinforced as the latter has been) but are a part of Grant's sagacious plan of the campaign-Lynchburg is as vital to the rebel occupancy of Richmond as Petersburg. Sheridan's presence anywhere in the Valley or on the line of the Upper Potomac, so seriously threatens it as that Lee must confront him with a large force or evacuate Richmond. In dividing his army, as Grant has compelled him to do that thing, he has failed in his assaults on us, first at Deep Run Bottom, next near Winchester, and again on the Weldon Railroad, with heavy loss on all three occasions-loss far greater than ours in killed and wounded at each point.

He must centinue to risk such assaults; the penalty being the eventual fall of Lynchburg the fall of Richmond by a coup de main from the vicinity of Deep Run Bottom, or the speedy erection of works by our troops across the Weldon Railroad that will bid defiance to assaults from a force thrice as strong as his whole army.

FROM THE FRONT. No Fighting of Consequence since Sunday-Arrival of Rebel Prisoners at City Point taken in Sunday's Battle. The mail steamer Keyport, Captain Talbot arrived about 8 this morning from City Point with mails and passengers.

The passengers report that there has been no fighting of consequence on the Weldon rail-Warren is firmly planted on the road and is not averse to an attack in his position. Some four or five hundred prisoners, mostly South Carolinians and Mississippians, taken on Sunday last by the 5th Corps, were brought down to City Point on Monday afternoon, and the officers among them, 42 in number, including Lieut. Col's. Bayne, 16th Miss.; Blake, 27th S. C.; and Maj. Bell, 12th Mississippi, were brought up on the Keyport, in charge of Lieut. Missell, 20th New York State Militia.

A story was afloat in Washington yesterday that the War Department had received dispatches that Fitzhugh Lee was killed and A. P. Hill mortally wounded in the Sunday's fight on the Weldon Railroad. The story was a canard, no such dispatches having been re-

PERSONAL.—We hear that Douglas Forrest Esq., (son of Com. French Forrest, formerly of the U.S. Navy, who ran off and joined the rebel navy at the beginning of the war,) died not long since in England, whither he had gone in the service of the rebel cause.

FINANCIAL.—The New York Post of yesterday evening says: The loan market is more active, and the rate is fully 7 per cent. The new stamp duty restricts the operations of brokers, who, in some cases, charge their customers an extra commission to cover it. The amount of good bills offering has been swelled within a week by a large influx of bankers' paper, created by the heavy transactions in foreign exchange. Over $2,000,000 are reported to have been thus negotiated, having 60 days to run, at 7 per cent. per Heavy drafts have been made on the National Banks this morning, causing a number of loans to be disturbed. The stock market opened heavy and closed without recovery. Governments are quiet, except the five-twenties, for which the foreign demand is increas tremely scarce.

The North Carolina Times, speaking of the recent election, says:—"The Holden men have a rejority in the Legislature. The citizens of North Carolina desire peace, notwithstanding the fact that rebel bayonets were used to overawe the conservative party, who sup-ported Holden. In the extreme western coun-ties, we learn that Holden obtained some very heavy majorities, but their vote was thrown out on the ground that they were not con-sidered 'leyal' to the Confederate government. At Kingston men were imprisoned for voting for Holden."

FROM THE UPPER POTOMAC. Position of Our Army-More Skirmishing Along the Front-No Rebels in Mary.

[Correspondence Baltimore American.] HALL TOWN, VA., Aug. 23 .- The position of our army still remains unchanged. A strong line of entrenchments have been thrown up by our troops, and a heavy line of skirmishers have been thrown out in front. Desultory skirmish firing could be heard all day yesterday, and this morning it broke out with redoubled strength in front of the Nine-teenth Corps, holding the center Nothing of any importance resulted from it, however, and it has now almost entirely ceased-12 o'clock. No evidence of the enemy being in our im-mediate front has been obtained as yet, and it is believed that they will make an attempt to cross the river, although our latest news from Williamsport says that they had not yet crossed

Guns could be heard yesterday up the river, supposed to be Averill shelling the woods in the direction of Sharpsburg. The army is lying in their entrenched camps, and the sutlers are arriving, which looks like a protracted sojourn. There is very little news of interest from this section.

General Max Webber has been relieved from the command of Harper's Ferry, and ordered to report for duty in the department of the Susquehanna. Gen. Stevenson new has command of the post at Harper's Ferry. FORRESTER. The Cavalry Fight at Front Royal.

The following is the official dispatch re-ceived by Gen. Torbert: HEADQUARTERS FIRST CAVALRY DIVISION. August 15, 1864 .- General Torbert: There was but little more fighting after my dispatch sent you at 7 p. m. The 2d Brigade did superbly. It captured one hundred and fifty prisoners, including twelve officers. The 1st Brigade also did magnificently, capturing over sixty prisoners, and repulsing a heavy force of infantry, killing and wounding a large number. Two battle flags were captured, and the old Division gave "the boys" a most magnificent dress ing. The reserve brigade was not engaged. The prisoners represent Kershaw's division of Longstreet's corps, Somers' and Wickern's brigades of cavalry, both small brigades. The country was open, and several elegant mounted charges were made. The enemy tried to turn our left, wading the river up to their waists, but they found us "laying for them," and we corralled them, shooting them down until they cried for mercy. Over thirty of their dead and large numbers of their wounded, lie in one

The enemy opened with splendid practice from two batteries. I rejoice to say our casu. alties are small for the amount of fighting done. Sixty will cover my entire loss. I never saw the command act better or do more execution. It was a "Darby fight" improved on. A rebel colonel was killed, and his body is in our hands. Two field officers were captured. The prisoners report that they came from Culpeper, and have been marching hard. I sent the prisoners and our wounded to Winchester to-night. Please see to arrangements for the wounded. I start at daylight in the morning.

W. MERRITT, Brigadier General. REBEL ACCOUNTS. Cavalry Skirmishing below Strasburg-The Rebel Gen. Vaughan Wounded, &c.

[From the Richmond Sentinel, Aug. 20.] We are without official information from the valley, and in the present admirable condition of the postal service on the railroad leading to that section, we expect to hear from Early via California several days ahead of the valley

We have seen a letter dated Edinburg, seventeen miles from Strasburg, Aug. 13, in which the writer (a gallant young soldier, who was wourded when Gen. Early first advanced into Maryland,) says:

"I am sure Early will fight them at Stras-burg, and it will be, from all appearances, a large fight. The Yankees have been reinforced by two corps of Grant's men. The enemy are skirmishing with our cavalry below Strasburg. by are a considerable distance this side of Middletown, which is thirteen miles from Winchester and five miles from Strasburg. The citizens are confident Early will defeat the enemy. Brigadier General Vaughan, of the cavalry, passed through here yesterday, wounded. The enemy have not burned anything so far that I can hear of."

The Draft in New York.

New York, Aug. 23.—The Board of Supervisors have passed a resolution requesting a postponement of the draft, and also the exemption of firemen and uniformed militia.

SHERMAN'S COMMUNICATIONS .- Whatever may be the numbers of Wheeler's cavalry, or their intentions, they have failed, as yet, seriously to interrupt the communications with the front. The telegraph was in working order yesterday to the headquarters of General Sherman, and the public may feel well assured that this accomplished chieftain will see that no detriment falls to his army from rebel operations in the rear. He will, we suspect, give Hood employment for all the men at Atlanta, and take good care that raiders like Wheeler are "taken in and done for."

We had no mail vesterday from Chattanooga. and are, consequently, without further advices touching the fights at Dalton and Graysville, or the whereabouts of the rebel raiders. The rain storms have damaged the railroad, but it is probable we will have a mail to-day.-Nashville Union, August 20.

MOSBY ABOUT AGAIN. He Attacks a Horse Stockade.

An orderly who came in this morning from the vicinity of Falls Church, reports that a force of guerrillas, under the command of Mosby, with two pieces of artillery, made a demonstration last night on the stockades in that vicinity, in which we have a number of horses, and that he was throwing shell in pretty lively. The guerrillas will not, however, tarry long in that quarter, as no doubt our cavalry will shortly be upon them. Early this morning firing was heard from that direc-

This morning, at about five o'clock, the garrison of the stockade at Annandale, consisting of two hundred and seventy-five men of the 16th New York cavalry, was attacked by the enemy under the leadership of Mosby, who had with him two pieces of artillery, and from two to three hundred men.

On taking his position, Mosby demanded the surrender of the garrison, which was refused; whereupon he opened fire with his guns, the cannonading lasting for say threefourths of an hour. The garrison still holding out, Moseby withdrew, and was followed by our cavalry, who, at latest advices, were still in pursuit.

LOCAL NEWS.

VERY REPREHENSIBLE AND THOUGHTLESS Last night, about 7 o'clock, considerable excitement was created on Louisiana avenue by a man running up towards Indiana avenue fellowed by a crowd, who cried out "Catch that man!" "Stop him!" and similar cries. When the pursued turned the angle where Indiana avenue joins Louisiana avenue, just in front of Mayor Wallach's residence, one of the pursuers, a detective, and who was at least one hundred yards behind the pursued, fired off a pistol, the ball passing near a number of persons in front of him, and between Mayor Wallach and a Mr. Flood, who were in conversation at the time in front of the door of the former. The alarm brought out the 7th precinct police in full force, and the fugitive was captured a short distance down 4% street by Officer Frazier, who handed him over to and under arrest. It is proper to arrest and punish bounty jumpers, deserters, and other criminals, and also proper to pursue them and shoot them, if there is no other means of bringing them to; but it is a reckless proceeding to fire at a flee ing man in the dark, especially when he has turned a corner, and the weapon used is evidently not one of the pattern which Davy Crockett claimed to have, and which would "send a bullet around a corner."

of company F, 84th regiment New York National Guard, (one hundred days' men.) was drowned last night in the canal near Great Falls under most distressing circumstances. The regiment is doing duty from Great Falls to below the Seven Locks. At the latter point company F is stationed, and last night Serg't Doak started with his captain (McLeod) to post pickets along the line they had to guard, and at the same time to point out the road to Great Falls (headquarters of the regiment) to an orderly sent up by Gen. Augur. When within tempted to cross a bridge, and his horse stumbled, and he was precipitated in the canal. His body was recovered between 12 and 1 o'clock, and was at once brought to this city and empalmed by Drs. Brown and Alexander, who having been for a long time clerk to Captain Plato, A. Q. M. Latterly he has been employed as a clerk in the New York custom-house, but at the call for one hundred days' men he responded at once, and joined the 84th. He was much liked by the officers and men of his regiment. Major Barclay, Capt. McLeod, Quartermaster Geo. F. Doak, and other officers, as a mark of respect, accompanied the remains to this city, and will send them off under a

GRAND LARCENY, RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS AND ASSAULT AND BATTERY .- Agnes White, who is but a few days out of the workhouse, was arrested yesterday by officer Grant, of the Fourth Ward, upon a charge of stealing a shawl, valued at ten dollars. After getting out of the workhouse, Agnes went to a shanty near Stanton Hospital, kept by Sarah McNeil, who gave her lodgings and something to eat. Agnes got drunk and stole her friend's shawl, and sold it to a woman named Ellen Foley. Agnes plead guilty, and was sent to jail for court by

A DULL SHARP .- A young fellow, who claims to belong to Indiana, went into Barrow & McKelden's banking rooms, (Bank of Washington building,) and presented what purported to be a $5,000 note, of Lowell's Col-York, and asked thousand dollar bills and the balance in smaller notes, in change for it. Mr. A. R. Allen being present took the young man into Justice Kinsey's, where he was searched, and a small amount of good money and a baggage check of Willard's Hotel was found on him. He was not much disposed to give any account of himself. The piece of paper was no doubt simply an advertising check, such as as are commonly used now, and as the arrested party appears to be a simpleton, and said he thought he had found it and thought it good money, he

A Good Job.-Some weeks since a canal boat belonging to Mr. Lynch, loaded with 119 tons of coal, was sunk in the channel near Georgetown in 22 foot water. Aside from the temporary loss of the coal, the boat formed an obstruction in the channel, and it was determined to move it, and Mr. Oliver Craig, foreman of the laborers at the Navy Yard was entrusted with the task and with the aid of barges and what is known as the spanish windlass, he succeeded in raising the boat entire, and moving it safely to the wharf. The job occupied about two weeks, and extraordinary care had to be taken in placing the chains under the boat, as it was an old one, for fear that it would part.
